Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

1. Claims 1-17 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record neither discloses nor suggests in combination with the other limitations of the independent claims a light intensity measuring element which measures the intensity of respective light components emitted from a plurality of portions of a bar lamp and wherein the light intensity measuring element has a plurality of light introduction parts guiding light components emitted, an imaging part between first ends of plurality of light introduction parts opposed to second ends facing the plurality of flash lamps and photodetector for imaging introduced light components received from flash lamps, guided to introduction parts through the second ends and emitted from the first ends on the photodetector, and the resolution of the imaging part is adjusted to enable the identification of the introduced light components received from the plurality of flash lamps imaged on photoconductor respectively..

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
